

The 'de-regulation' already in effect has, in my opinion, had extremely negative results for the listening public. To allow even greater multi-station ownership across media lines would have the potential of being disastrous. It's time to set aside the interests of big corporations and leave protective legislation in place; if not undo some of what has already been done.

In my opinion, the FCC has NOT been acting in the interest of the American people.